

Postdoctoral Researcher Management and Ecological Transition

Context and Position

Université Paris Dauphine - PSL seeks a highly skilled and motivated researcher attached to the Chair CPJ Management and Ecological Transition for a full-time, one-year (renewable) postdoctoral contract focused on ecological transition and sustainability.

The postdoctoral researcher's primary role will be to engage in research projects on ecological transition, sustainability, and/or sufficiency. Responsibilities will include proposing and conducting joint research projects with the Chair's team. In their application, candidates should explore potential avenues for collaboration and propose ideas for new joint project development. The candidate will join the Laboratory Dauphine Recherches en Management and will be expected to participate in its research seminars and community life.

The postdoctoral candidate is expected to contribute to advancing knowledge within the broader scope of sustainability. Topics of interest may include, but are not limited to:

- Sufficiency and consumption, waste, recycling, consumer lifestyle changes
- The circular economy, the sharing economy, collaborative consumption
- New ways of working, organizational change for sustainability
- Ecofeminism, post-growth, post-consumption, bio-social turn, more-than-human approaches
- Circular business models
- Sustainable supply chain, digital transformation, CSR, sustainable marketing, smart cities, resilience, etc.

This post-doctoral contract provides a unique opportunity to advance your research career in the vibrant academic environment of the Université Paris Dauphine-PSL. The researcher will have access to research facilities, collaborative networks, and a supportive community of scholars.

Requirements:

- A Ph.D. in marketing, management, or organization studies, completed in the three years before the start of the position.
- Strong proficiency in qualitative analysis and the ability to conduct qualitative research
- Proven research experience, evidenced by articles, chapters, conference publications, or working papers.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills in English.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a research team.

To apply, please submit:

- Detailed curriculum vitae (CV)
- Cover letter including a statement of research interests with goals and avenues for collaboration
- A recommendation letter
- Copies of relevant publications or working papers.

Important Information:

- The application deadline is September 13^h 2024. Shortlisted candidates will be invited for an interview shortly after.
- The position starts in January 2025.
- Monthly Gross Salary starts at €3200 (to be discussed based on relevant experience)
- For further information about the position or inquiries regarding the application process, please contact Adèle Gruen adele.gruen@dauphine.psl.eu